

COBA PLAYER TRANSFER AGREEMENT

A youth member becomes attached to a School/Club when he/she competes with that club in any COBA sanctioned event or lives in that school district. An attached youth member may transfer to another club/school team in the same sport if the representative of the club/school to which an athlete is attached signs a release form permitting an immediate transfer. (Athletes released under this provision are subject to OHSAA eligibility restrictions as adopted by COBA.)
